[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE NEWS] NEW YORK, Wednesday, October 10-2 A. M. The Liberals have undoubtedly lost the State of Pennsylvania, but they have probably carried both Ohio and Indiana.

The returns at this hour indicate that the majority of Hartranft, the Radical candidate. for Governor of Pennsylvania, will reach 25,-000. Money was poured like water into the the State, and the fraudulent voting has been, beyond all comparison, the most systematic and widespread in the history of American

There was a heavy increase in the vote cast, as the consequence of the Radical tactics of importing and repeating voters. Philadelphia and Pittsburg did the work. THE ELECTION IN THE KEYSTONE

A Tremendous Vote Polled-Hartranft Rans Ahead of his Ticket-Republ can Gains in Philadelphia-Defeat of the Democratic Ticket.

PHILADELPHIA, October 8-6 P. M. A tremendous vote has been polled. All the morning the election went on very quietly. Under the new election law all the taverns are closed. The United States marshal has eight hundred special officers on duty, who are distributed in the wards where it was thought that trouble might occur.

Reddy, the Blacksmith, a famous New York rowdy, was arrested after voting three times, and was locked up for a further hearing. Fitteen tax receipts were found on him.

In thirteen wards of this city, during the first hour that the polls were open, Hartranft was 2631 ahead of Buckalew, and over 600 shead of the Republican ticket. This is an indication that Hartranit will run shead, and not fall behind his ticket as was expected.

The Evening Telegraph asserts that the second ward will give a Republican majority for the first time in eight years. In Reading Buckslew's majority will not exceed 6000. In Eric Buckslew is running ahead. At Chambersburg Hartranst is running up with his ticket. In Lebannon Hartranft 50 ahead. In Doylestown Buckalew is gaining ground. In Westchester Hartranit runs well up to his ticket. In Easton Buckalaw appears ahead with a heavy vote. In Pittsburg, on a vote of 6000, cast in three hours, the Republican majority was 1200. At noon forty districts gave Hartranft 6388 and Buckaiew 4462. Northumberland and Mount Carmel give Hartranit 197 majority. Delaware and Upper Chichester give Hartranft 27. Lower Chichester give Hartranft 28. Dauphin and Middleton give Buckalew 53. Berks, Reading, first ward, give Hartranft 103, a Republican gain of 51; fifth ward give Buckalew 32, a Republican gain of 9. Lancaster, Sallsbury, Buckalew 10. Northhampton, Buckslew 19. Moore Township, Buckalew 241. Erie, Harbor Creek, Hartranft 121. Crawford, Cochranton, Buckalew 45. West Moreland, Pennsylvania Township. Buckalew 117. Beddeford Borough, Buckalew 39. Bucks, New Hope, Hartranft 1 majority.

WASHINGTON, October 8-10 P. M. Heavy bets are freely offered that Hartranst is elected by, at least, ten thousand majority. John W. Forney and Alexander McClure concede the defeat of the Democratic ticket.

THE ELECTION IN OHIO.

A Preparatory Scrimmage-Scattering Returns from the State-No Estimate Made of the Result.

CINCINNATI, October 8. There was a riot yesterday, in which a negro meeting and a Liberal torchlight procession were engaged. Several white men were shot and several negroes knocked down. The negroes took possession of an armory and guarded all the approaches. At midnight the police closed in on the armory, and at half-past one all was quiet. The whites retired, and the negroes evacuated the armory.

COLUMBUS, O., October 8-10 P. M. Warren City, Trumbull County, three wards, give Wykoff, Republican, for secretary of State, 501, and Wiley, Democrat, 269. Returns from twenty townships in various countles of the State show a net Republican gain, over the majority for secretary of State In 1870, of 548. Two of these townships show a Democratic gain of 20 votes.

Only Meagre Returns-A Cheering Pros pect of a Liberal Victory.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 8 -10 P. M. The election returns, so far, are very meagre The ticket is long, and the returns received are only from small precincts. The vote is very close, and it will be late before a correct estimate can be made. One precinct in St. Joseph's County gives Brown (Republican) for Governor 207 majority. White River township, Randolph County, gives Brown 395 majority. New Haven, Allen County, gives Hendricks (Democrat) for Governor 110 majority. Guilford township gives Brown 450 majority.

Dear Fuel-The Newmarket Autumn Meeting. LONDON, October 8.

The price of coal has again advanced. The mining companies of Beiglum are not able to execute the orders they have received to send coal to this country, in consequence of the scarcity of miners in that country. The Czarewitch stakes of the Newmarket antumn meeting were woo by Salvanos, beating Sylva second, Enfield third. Twenty-four horses ran. Betting, at the start, was seventeen to one against Salvanos, and three to four against Sylva, seventeen to one against Enfield. W. Warnuli was the jockey of the winner.

The Abolition of Slavery in Spa

MADRID, October 8. In the Cortes the president decided that, under the rules of the House, the debate on the motion to amend the address to the King by inserting a paragraph asking for the aboli-tion of slavery was out of order.

After the shopkeepers' manifestation yesterday, which temporarily subsided on the promise of the alcalde that the lax on showbills would be reconsidered, the crowd again collected on the street, hissed members of the collected on the street, missed members of the city government, who were trying to allay the excitement, and assailed the police with clubs and stones. The civil force being unable to suppress the disorder, and the rioters becoming more violent, a battalion of national guards was called out and cleared the streets. Several persons were injured, but none killed. Order was restored.

A HEAVY ROBBERY.

Mr. Kirlin, of the firm of Kirlin, Callaghan & Co., contractors on the Port Royal Road, is paymaster of the hands, and stationed at Saud Bar Ferry, where the bridge across the Savannah River is being built. Last Sunday he had in his tent a trunk which contained about one thousand dollars in currency. Be-tween the hours of eleven and one o'clock he left his tent for the purpose of superintending some work geing on in the river. He re-mained at his work for about two hours, and then returned to his quarters for dinner. On entering the tent he was, of course, much surorised to find that his trunk had been forced during his absence, and was lying open. An examination of its contents proved that it had been robbed of four hundred and forty-four been robbed of four hundred and forty-four dollars—the remaining five hundred and fitty-six dollars not having been touched. There was no positive evidence pointing to the per-petrator of the act, but the cook (a colored man) was arrested on suspicton—he having been in the immediate proximity of the tent during the absence of Colonel Kirlin.

A chivalrous burglary was lately perpetrated in the beautiful residence of Samuel Pope, a wealthy citizen of Paterson, N. They were beaulifully-dressed men and had hands white and soft, as he could see by the moonlight. The leader, in a courteous tone and mild language, told Mr. Pope not to be frightened, but to keep quiet and he should not be harmed. He fell in with their surgesnot be harmed. He fell in with their surges-tions under the circumstances, and they tied his hands and feet with a long piece of tarred-rope. They then bound Mrs. Pope in the same way as delicately as possible, leaving her in bed and taking her husband to a closet where they could watch him. Two were stationed at the window, and there seemed to be several outside, making about ten in all. The safe keys were removed from their owner's pocket, and two of the number with muffled feet set about gathering up the valuables. From the bureaus they gleaned about $1000 in specie and $2000 worth of lewelry and silverware. From the safe they took about $17.000 in rallroad bonds and other valuable papers. When they had concluded their search, a little adopted daughter was taken from her bed, and after being soothed was put in bed with Mrs. Pape, and told to unte her father and mother effect they had gone. All then jumped into after they had gone. All then jumped into their carriage and drove away, leaving no trace behind them but the tarred rope. CARDOZO AGAIN CHARGES THAT TOM-LINSON BRIBED THE SENATE.

Joint Radical Meeting at Sumter-The Speeches of Sawyer, Cardozo and Others-The Audience Ten to One for the Regular Ticket.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT 1

SUMTER, October 5. According to appointment, several speakers addressed the people here yesterday in behalf of the "True" or Bolting Republican ticket But a feature was introduced into the proceedings not announced in the programme. Two of the shining lights of the "Regulars" or Moses party appeared at the meeting and spoke in defence of that wing of the Republloans.

A platform was erected in the courthouse square, in front of the headquarters of the Bolters, and soon after the arrival of the midday train the meeting was organized and the speaking commenced. The first speaker was Mr. Thos. J. Coghlan, candidate for sheriff. Mr. Coghlan is not much of an orator, but a plain, practical man, who has considerable influence with the colored people, and I think stands pretty well with the whites. Mr. Cognian is the incumbent in the offices of sheriff and county treasurer, and was a candidate for the nomination of sheriff before the County Convention, which he falled to receive Whether this little circumstance had any Whether this little circumstance had any-thing to do with his present attitude as a Bolter I am not prepared to say, but it looks rather fishy.

After the sheriff finished his remarks, Sena-

After the sheriff finished his remarks, Senator Sawyer was introduced and made a temperate, dignified and able argument against Moses, on the ground of his undtness for the position of Governor by reason of his reckless waste of the public money in the matter of the immense over-issue of pay certificates, and the arms-conversion affair. The honorable senator explained very clearly the whole matter to the andlence, and contended that even ter to the audience, and contended that even if Moses were entirely innocent of the frauds charged upon him, and had got applied a dol-lar of this money to his own pesonal benefit, yet one so utterly defective in common prudence, and so reckless of the State's money, was not worthy of the condence of the people. Mr. Sawyer intimated yery plainty that Moses's nomination was obtained by bribery, and described the manner in which "Honest" John Butterson wonered the Contention for ble scribed the manner in which "notest." John Patterson managed the Convention for his own purposes. It was quite a luxury to hear a speech delivered in a calm and statesmanlike manner, free from vulgarity and abustve epithets, and one which might have been delivered in the Senate without derogation to delivered in the Senate without derogation to delivered in the senate without derogation to the dignity of that body. Mr. Sawyer describ-ed the candidates of the Bolters in terms of high encomium, and defended himself against the charge of unfaithfulness to the colored ne charge of unfathinates to the colored ecople in connection with the civil rights bill. The next speaker was the Hon, F. L. Car-lozo, He replied to Senator Sawyer, and retorted upon him by charging directly that Tomlinson told him (Cardozo) with his own mouth that he (Tomlinson) did bribe the mount that he (Tominson) that or toe the Senate to pass the phosphate bill. He was also very severe upon Sawyer bimself, whom he charged with aiming at his re-election to the Senate, knowing that if the Regular ticket was elected, his (Sawyer's) game was up. He also pitched into Corbin, Clark and the other Federal office-holders, who, he said, was also workload to a said, were solve workload.

other Federal office-notices, who, he said, were only working to save their heads from being cut off and thrown into the basket, which was sure to follow if the Regulars got into power. He defended Moses at length, and largued that the amount of pay ortificates had been grossly exaggerated. His time being limited, he had to cut short his speech, and exited by made a strong impression upon but evidently made a strong impression upon the colored men present, who gave him irethe colored men present, who gave him frequent and hearty applause.

Short specches by Mr. J. J. Fleming (white,) and Westberry (colored,) candidates for the Legislature on the Bolter's ticket followed, after which the Rev. R. H. Cain, of Charleston, made a good and telling address in behalf of Moses and the regular ticket. He ulter-ly denied the truth of all the charges against Moses. Challenged the proof that a single fraudulent pay certificate had been issued by him, and praised him to the skies as a young gentleman of high social position before the war—who was honored and respected by every man, woman and child in the Stateevery man, woman and child in the State—so much so that he was selected to raise the stars and bars on Fort Sumter, and was the trusted private secretary of the then Governor. He said Moses had gracefully acknowledged that the sword had decided against his State, and had gone into the Republican party for the sole purpose of benefiting all classes of the people, white and black. Oain certainly spoke well and earnestly, and received much applause.

Judge John T. Green next addressed the meeting in a lengthy and forcible speech. He took up the pay-certificate business, and gave it a thorough ventilation; showed how they had been issued to persons who had never rendered any service whatever to the State, rendered any service whatever to the Slate, and argued that it was impossible to come to any other conclusion than that there was collusion between Speaker Moses and Treasurer Parker in these trauds. Judge Green made a strong and earnest effort, and was listened to patiently than most of the Bolters' speakers.

Mr. B. F. Whittemore closed the exercises of the day with a long and able address against Moses. He devoted himself largely to the arms-conversion affair, which he explained in detail. He spoke well in the face of frequent interruptions, and kept his tem-per in spite of many personalities which were thrown out against him. In order to impress ipon his hearers the extent of Moses's frauds upon his hearers the excess of modes a factor, he stated that the money thus diverted from its proper use could have built one thousand school-houses—could have educated a hundred thousand children—was equal to a tax of three and a half mills on every dollar of the property of the State—would make a track of greenbacks one foot wide and fitten miles long, or, three inches wide, seventy miles long. The close of Whitemore's remarks was so drowned by the vooiferations of marks was so drowned by the vociferations of the crowd that it was impossible to hear a word he said, and, it being then dark, your correspondent retired from the scene, and presumes that the meeting broke up in dis-

As a calm and impartial observer, not caring a pin for either the Begular or the Bolters candidates, but as a truthin recorder o facts as they impressed themselves upon my mind, I must say that the audience, which usually small, and consisted mostly of i people, seemed to be for Moses and gular ticket in the tatio of about three The facts stated and the arguments ised against Moses did not seem to make the slightest impression, while every complimen-tary allusion to the Regular candidates was halled with enthusiastic applause. CHARLESTON, WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 9, 1872. THE PUBLIC DEBT.

The Bolters Endorse the Constitutional

The attention of the executive committee of the True Republican party has been called to your article of Sunday last, with reference to the proposed amendment to the State Constitution, limiting the power of the Legislature to create a debt, without first submitting the question to a vote of the people. Our committee is unanimously in favor of the proposed amendment; and have ordered only affirmative tickets to be printed for the use of voters of our party. No negative tickets will be printed or circulated by us, and every effort will be used on our part to secure the adoption of the proposed amendment.

D. T. CORBIN. THE VIEWS OF THE STATE PRESS.

A Nut for the Bolters to Crack. [From the Orangeburg News, Rad.]

The meu who got up the Bolters' Conven-tion were the following office-holders: United States Senator Sawyer, District Attorney Cor-bin, Assistant United States District Attorney Earle, Collector of Customs Clark, United States Commissioner Pointer, ex-United States Marshal Johnson, Postmaster Bryce, two ex-Congressmen, Bowen and Whittemore, and a State Circuit Judge, Orr, truly an excellent array from which to expect "honesty" in the administration of political affairs. Was it a sincere desire for reform in the management of State affairs that prompted these gentlemen to leave the regular convention, or was it a desire to perpetuate their hold upon the public teat for another term of years? What is there in the record of the principal actors in this ridicuof the principal actors in this ridicu-lous movement to inspire confidence in their promises for the future? Have they not all been identified to a greater or less extent with been identified to a greater or loss extent with the management of political affairs of the State for the past four years? If there was anything wrong with the legislation which fastened upon the people of South Carolina the bonded debt which now hangs over us, did not these gentlemen act a prominent part therein? If the record does not speak falsely, the first legislation of reconstructed South the first legislation of reconstructed South Carolina which was open to criticism bears the impress of the very men who now prate so loudly of honesty and reform. The phosphate bill, the bill to lund the bills of the Bank of the State, and other bills of similar character, were pet measures of these same gentlenen. One of the first acts of the Legislature where corrupt means were used to secure its passage was an act in which several of the leading spirits in the Bolters' movement were interested. Will one of the supporters of the Bolters please explain? Only a Difference in Degree.

[From the Wiosboro News.]

The developments of the present campaign have proved clearly to us, and we think to the reat bulk of white voters of this State, that neither of the sets of nominers, placed before the people by the R-publicans, for State offices, the people by the K-pub Icans, for State offices, are worthy of the support of honest men, nor can expect anything from the Democratic Conservative party of this Commonwealth. We draw our conclusions from the fact that both Mesers. Moses and T-milinson have been successful in their efforts to prove each other rogues and knaves, and the only possible difference between them is as to the degree of their crimiality. That hath the degree of their criminality. That both have been guilty of flagrant maifeasance and fraudulent dealings, we havn't a doubt, and o better witnesses are needed to establish this than the parties themselves and their advocates. Viewing their candidacy from this stand-point, we draw back in disgust, and ndignantly decline countrancing such lik. We cannot lend our voice or vote in folsting we cannot lend our voice or vote in tolsting upon the State men whom we conscientiously believe to be inimical to its best interests. One of the two will doubtless be elected, but we will have the proud satisfaction of knowing that we took no part in such an outrage.

The Demogratic "Conspiracy." [From the Columbia Union, Rad.]

The plan of the Democrats now is, to take no part in the State canvass, so far as the State are concerned—not even your for State officers at all—thus leading the Reinto the belief that their majority is more than it really is. It would be quite ural for Republicars to become more or less apathetic if we should carry the State by an overwhelming majority in October, and no doubt many would stay away from the polis in lovember, thinking their votes were not necessary. The Democrats being perfectly organ-ized would require an extended notice of what their party has determined to do, but would go to the polls with its full strength, and beat us, eeven when we thought we were, as it were, invulnerable.

The Constitutional Amendments. [From the Columbia Phœnix.]

We desire to call the attention of candidates. both Mosesites and Bolters, to the constitu-tional amendment in relation to the public both Mosesites and Boiters, to the constitutional amendment in relation to the public debt, and to have a declaration from them, whether or not they are is favor of its adoption. To take steps at this late day to restrain the power of the General Assembly in creating public debt, is painfully like locking the door after the steed has been stolen. But it is a good thing to be done at any time. The indiscreet and frequently dishonest tampering with the public credit by Legislatures, has become the crying abuse of the age, and the prollific parent of that official corruption which at present, more than anything else, endangers the permanence of republican institutions. We hope the citizens throughout the State will see to it that the two parties and the individual candidates, particularly of the Legislature, shall give some public expression of their opinion on this subject. Let every candidate answer through the public press.
